We're delighted to welcome you to our autumn auction of prestigious grands crus, featuring the greatest icons of Bordeaux, Burgundy and Champagne.

The auction will feature over 500 bottles, the fruit of our expert's rigorous selection from exceptional Luxembourg, French and Belgian cellars.

Burgundy and its network of different ?climats?, whose richness and typicity led to their inclusion on UNESCO's World Heritage list in 2015, have been making headlines on the prestige wine market for several years now. We'll be able to discover exceptional bottles from the Eugène Ellia estate: Gevrey Chambertin, Vosne Romanée, Meursault, Corton Marechaudes, Nuits St Georges, and Beaune 1er Cru.

Let's continue with the great reputation of the Bordeaux region and the implacable regularity that has made them successful for decades, with collectors still snapping up the first classified Grands Crus at a premium.

Like this Petrus from 1987, which will be on sale, as well as Champagne lovers will not be outdone, with a fine selection of rare bottles sought after by Pommery collectors.

Our buyers are mostly well-informed Europeans, but also customers from all over the world with a variety of profiles: young collectors, more seasoned collectors, investors specializing in rare wines who want to build up a fine collection or simply diversify their cellar.

We make a point of checking the authenticity and state of preservation of the bottles before including them in our sales.

Our estimates are verified at the time of appraisal, to ensure correlation between the estimated price and the actual condition of the wine or spirit to be sold.

Expertise your prestige wines free of charge and confidentially at home anywhere in Europe and Switzerland, or by appointment at our auction house.

We wish you successful auctions!
